New Hours:

Monday 9:00am—12pm

Wednesday 1:30pm—3:30pm

FYI

For Your Information

Hello Everyone! Parking has been a major problem here lately. Be sure you are parking in the correct areas. The main problem we are having are people parking where the curb is marked yellow. The yellow area means not to park. When you park incorrectly it causes problems with people getting through especially school buses in the morning and afternoon. I know parking can be tough but it's a very preventable thing. Also with the weather getting colder make sure you are taking safe measures with electronic heaters. Do not leave them unintended. Also the tip line is always on so if see something is going on feel free to leave an anonymous tip at (812) 206-2047. Just remember we're all here to make the community a safer place.

FAMILY SELF-SUFFICIENCY SUCCESS

Katrina Curry has a lot to smile about. Katrina is devoted to her five children. A survivor of domestic violence, she found shelter at Springhaven. In 2014 she moved her family into New Albany Housing Authority. As a single mom, Katrina vowed that she would do whatever it took to make sure she would never experience homelessness again. She joined Family Self Sufficiency, met her case manager, Cindy Senter, and they sat down and developed a set of goals. Katrina used this as her road map to success! She had a vision of buying a house that was big enough for her large family. Katrina obtained a job working at Norton's Hospital as an 'Access Center Coordinator'. Because she was earning wage, her increase in rent went into an escrow account. Each month that Katrina paid a higher rent, it went into her savings account. She worked very hard to repair her damaged credit. It took time, but she was determined! She purchased a newer car in 2018, and slowly things got better. Just this past December 2019, Katrina accomplished her dream of owning a home! None of this was easy, and Katrina wants to share where she was so that she can be an inspiration to anyone struggling. Her new home has 4 bedrooms, 2 living areas, 2 full bathrooms, and she cannot be more thrilled. Today Katrina's children are bursting with joy. Her little girls eye sparkle with pride for their mom. This is just the beginning. Katrina is starting a business to supplement her new life. She is branching out with 'The Curry Collection' designer eyelashes. She has bigger ideas, goals and future plans for her and her children. We wish her the very best!
