COMMUNITY THINGS

IT'S JAKE...FROM NAHA

Hello I am Officer Jake Hannon, and I am the campus officer for NAHA. Each month I want share with you guys some tips and input on ways we all can make our campuses safer. This month I want to talk about the pet policy. Keep in mind NAHA is a no pet property UNLESS, you have properly added the pet to your lease. These pets include fish, birds, cats or dogs. Some breeds that are NOT allowed on campus at all are Rottweilers, Chows, Doberman Pinschers, Pit Bulls, or any mix of these breeds. If you have any pet policy concerns, please see your managers. That's all I have this month, but if you see me around, say "Hi!"

Family Self Sufficiency Success

If you have ever been in the FSS office or if you have had the pleasure of attending one of our NAHA events, then chances are you know Miss Toni Powers. Toni has given so much over the years. Toni moved onto the New Albany Housing Authority's campus in 2005. She had spent her entire life working and felt retirement was going to be her new job. Little did she know that she was still needed. Toni served as Resident Commissioner on the NAHA Board of Commissioners for over 8 years. While serving on the board, Toni was the voice for the residents. Toni has worn so many hats while here at NAHA. When there was a need for congregate meals at Mark Elrod, Miss Toni stepped to the plate and worked in the kitchen serving lunch. Then she decided to help out by volunteering in the Family Self Sufficiency offices. She has broken up fights, dried tears, listened with a loving heart and provided much needed guidance to our families. In addition to that, Miss Toni learned how to navigate computer programs and complete intake sheets for the case managers. She never says 'no', whether it is serving pizza to 300 plus kids or assisting nursing students with healthy education classes. As of October 2019, Miss Toni will be officially retiring and will no longer be in the Family Self Sufficiency offices. She will be greatly missed...but if we know Toni, she will be helping out somewhere.

New Albany Housing Authority wishes Miss Toni Powers the very best!

DUG UP PRETZEL BONES

- 1 cup of Pretzel sticks
- Mini marshmallows
- Chocolate cookies (Ex: Oreos)
- 12oz of Bag of white Candy melts

Skewer mini marshmallows on each end of pretzel stick. Dip into melted white candy melts; remove to a parchment-lined baking sheet with a fork. Let set. Toss in with crumbled chocolate cookies for dirt.
